HAWAIIAN DRAMA.

New Play to be Produced at the Opera House This Evening.

D. M. Crowley's latest "Oceanica," will be presented by a company of well-trained foreign and native amateurs at the Opera House this evening. Extensive prepara-tions have been made and rehearsals have been very successful. An inter-esting series of historical events will be witnessed by those attending the entertainment.

Burial of George Norton

Twenty-two carriages containing the relatives and friends followed the hearse carrying the remains of the late George Kausina Norton to the Kawaishao Cemetery. The hearse was preceded by H. Williams the undertaker and Rev. H. H. Parker. At the grave prayer was offered by Mr. Parker. The pall bearers were: Messrs. Henry Smith, Henry Kaia, D. L. Kalawais, W. H. C. Greig, Ed. Stiles, Chas. Lewis, Moore and Horace Lewis. Messrs. Robert Lewers and F. J. Lowrey, of the firm of Lewers & Cooke, employers of the late Mr. Norton, with Miss Lewers, attended the funeral. A number of members of the old volunteer fire department were also there.

Cleveland Again Ahead.

The following cycle item is from the San Francisco Examiner of July Griffiths is a son of the popular captain of the bark Albert:
"Griffiths and Davis of the Cleveland team returned by 'eam from Santa Cruz yesterday morning, hav-ing ridden there from Salinas. Each took 200 copies of the Examiner to Salinas last Saturday. They left the Examiner building at 4 a. m. and got into Salinas, III miles, at 8 p. m., stopping an hour and a half at San Jose to eat and rest. They also stopped at Gilroy. They rode twenty-five pound Clevelands and carried the papers on a platform over the rear wheel behind the sad-dle. Their riding time for the 111 miles was nine hours."

* The philosopher who says that "when ladies want society items they look in the society or local columns," hits very wide of the mark and evidently is not posted in Honolulu. Little of what is termed society talk gets in the newspapersthey reported the mandolin concert as a "success, and the house comfortably filled with lovers of music and people of refined tastes in the more delicate arts," and so it was, but it is Silk Dresses to Holokus that there was not a lady in the house but that knew what her neighbor wore, and of course talked it over with friends under the head of Society Talk. A good many of those Dress Patterns we spoke of last week and considerable of the Hosiery found its way there. More of them will be seen at the Fancy Dress Ball.

Wednesday, July 25th, will see a line of Colored Wool Dress Goods formerly sold at 75 cents going at 50 cents; they are beauties. There is no profit in these goods. While all the week Victoria Lawns (these yards for 75 cents; Merrimac Prints 10 yards for 50 cents-you know yards for $1, and Brown Cottons 16 yards for $1.

Saturday, July 28th. every Remnant in the house must go at your own prices. We must have the room for New Goods. Remember we have had a general mark down in all departments of our house We only quote you a few things for lack of space. Every day is a Clearance Sale day with us. We never have been undersold, and do not intend to be. Look out for next week.

Letter from Mr. Kenyon.

EDITOR BULLETIN:-

To-day I met accidentally, ou Kaahumanu street, Rev. S. E. Bishop and requested the favor of a few minutes conversation with him. He at once said, "I do not see the neces sity of having any conversation with you." I replied, "I merely wished to ask you if you were the United Press correspondent." He again stated, "I do not think it necessary to have any conversation with you," and turned and went into Bishop &

Co.'s bank. I state this publicly merely to show that I have taken every step in my power to refute the unfounded statement made by the United Press correspondent from here that I had acted as a go-between in an alleged attempt at bribery.

If it is possible, Mr. Editor, I will yet sheet home the accusation to the person or persons who made it and take such further steps as will vindicate me from such a foul and baseless aspersion, though I still trust that a feeling of justice will prompt my anonymous defamer to exonerate G.
