DRIFTED 82 DAYS.

Schooner Without a Compass Arrives From Tahiti.

John Charles Rigg, a young Frenchman of Tahiti, arrived here from Hawaii yesterday on the Mauna Loa, with Walter M. Giffard. Rigg has had the experience of a life time. In a little schooner he and his crew reached Hookena, eighty-two days from home. Forty-two days they were without water, excepting what rain could be caught in the sails.

Rigg is the son of the owner of the craft. The voyage was to be from Tahiti to Peharyn. A few hours out a terrific storm was encountered.

The schooner will be here tomorrow or the next day. It carries the British flag. Rigg speaks only French. He was fortunate in meeting Mr. Giffard on the Mauna Loa and has been placed in communication with both the French and British representatives.

MOLOKAI PLANTATION. Manager Selected—From Hamoa. Wells—Planting Cane.

It is said to be finally settled now that Manager McLain of Hamoa Plantation, will be manager of the sugar estate of the Molokai Ranch Company. Mr. McLain has long been known as one of the best field and mill experts in the Islands.

The second "post hole" well is now going down near Kaunakakai for the Molokai Ranch Company's cane fields. Seven acres are already planted and are being irrigated from the first well sunk by McCandless Bros. It is the intention to cultivate twenty-five acres this year to get seed for planting next season.

plows will be at hand. All is activity around Kaunakakai now. Buildings are going up and ground is being cleared. Material is being received by schooners and by island steamers.

OLAA FOREST.

Timber Tract on Volcano Road is Menaced By Citizens.

Since V. M. Fulcher sold his Mountain View property says the Hilo Herald, the present owners filed or intended filing a petition in the Interior office for permission to open and clear the strip of forest reservation lying on the Volcano road in front of the hotel.

A number of property owners in the district while not opposing the petition have filed a counter one asking the same permission for themselves. The land law governing the lease or purchase of Oloo roads provides for this forest belt. It is retained to induce precipitation and as a feature of the drive. To permit the cutting of one section will mean the cutting of all and the great attraction on the Volcano road would be nil.

MRS. HAPAI.

Death of a Young Woman Who Had Many Friends.

After a painful illness of three months, Caroline Hapai, wife of Henry Hapai, died yesterday morning. The funeral was held at 9 o'clock in the afternoon and a large concourse of friends followed the remains to the grave in Kawaiahae cemetery. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. W. H. Kiteat of St. Andrew's Cathedral. Mrs. Hapai was a young woman of lovely character. She was a graduate of St. Andrew's Primary and was the daughter of H. Grube. Her circle of friends was a very large one and there is sincere mourning over her untimely death. Mrs. Hapai was but 22 years of age. The bereaved husband is Henry Hapai, of the Finance office, a young man who is well and favorably known in the community. Mrs. Hapai was a devout Christian and exercised much influence for good.

A Sydney paper says that Vaillan, the Apia home of the late Robt. Louis Stevenson, is going to rack and ruin. The place is completely deserted and even the tomb of Stevenson receives very little attention.
