LOCAL NEWS.

Don't forget the entertainment at the Royal Opera House on next Monday night. The Government Library and Museum will be closed until further notice. The Honolulu Rifles meet at the Armory this evening at half-past seven o'clock.

The singing class will meet in the Y. M. C. A. hall at half-past seven o'clock this evening.

One of the steamers due from San Francisco to day will most probably report the arrival of the Marsina at that place.

J. Spencer has challenged Willie Lucas to another one-mile skating race. It is not known whether the challenge will be accepted or not.

Mr. Geo. Vogt, the barber, has opened a shop on Fort street, in the room formerly occupied as a waiting room for Dodd's busses.

Look out for the steamers City of Sydney and Australia, which are due to-day, the former en route for Yokohama and Hongkong and the latter for the Colonies.

The robber who was reported in yesterday's Press as having entered the house of Mrs. Diaz, on Beretania street, last Thursday night, was a man named Jose Demingo, who was arrested on Saturday. He will be tried in the Police Court on the 8th instant.

Two hacks, one driven by a native and the other by a Chinaman, came into a collision at the corner of King and Maunakea streets yesterday afternoon at about two o'clock. The only damage done was a broken shaft on the Chinaman's hack.

The exhibition of Mr. Strog's pictures and the band concert at the Hawaiian Hotel last evening was quite a success, a large and fashionable audience being present. The band played some fine selections, and the evening was a most enjoyable one to those present.

A Chinese store on Nuuanu street, was the scene of some excitement last evening at about seven o'clock. It seems that two Chinamen got into a fight in the store, and while they were wrestling, one of them fell against the counter, upsetting a lamp, which exploded and set fire to some rubbish on the floor. The fire was extinguished without damage.

A man named Thos. Murphy, aged 53 years, died at the Queen's Hospital yesterday afternoon of blood poisoning. The deceased had resided in Honolulu about seven years, and for the past two years had been employed in the Fashion Stables. He was a native of Pennsylvania. The funeral services will be held at the Catholic Church at ten o'clock this morning.

The union religious services yesterday were largely attended. At the Bethel the vestry was well-filled. Rev. E. C. Oggel led the meeting. In the evening at the Fort-street Church the Pastor gave a brief Bible reading on "What Shall We Do with Christ." The meeting was very impressive, and several expressed a desire to be remembered in the closing prayer. There will be services again this morning at the Bethel at 11 o'clock, led by Rev. A. O. Forbes; subject: "Humiliation and Confession." Also services this evening in the Fort-street Church, led by Rev. E. C. Oggel.

They say that it is funny to see the amount of guard duty done at the Post Office after the coin has been taken; that the efficient detectives already suspect as many as half a dozen persons, who did not take the dumpy; that there will be a stir in the political circles when the new candidates come out; that the discontent of the natives is already showing itself against the present Administration by uniting under Independent leaders; that the Chinese are official pets on the other Islands; that the blame for the late robbery rests upon the shoulders of the man who committed it; that the church services for the week will be filled with more than ordinary interest; that the Hawaiians on Hawaii do not like the political leaders of the Government party on Oahu; that the Honolulu newsboys all saw the circus after Mr. Mellis put them to bed the other night; that the quaintest political device would be a Government capable of stealing from itself; that the "many men of many minds" saying applies to Hawaiian politics; that some new developments may be looked for soon in the Post Office robbery for the following reason: the investigation has been placed in the hands of the police force; that the lawn tennis rage will take possession of Honolulu society this summer; that the native girls know how to enjoy a horse-back ride; that the good weather makes the Road Supervisor smile over into the next street; that a little rain makes the general public swear in every street; that the exhibition and music at the Hawaiian Hotel last night was a feather in Mr. Graham's cap; that the girls all cried philopena; that the Honolulu girls are about to organize a needle work society with the object of starting a society, department in some newspaper; that the "man of Fate" would have straightened out Hawaiian political affairs in a hurry; that the next steamer will bring some interesting English news; and that Honolulu gossip should never be told in italics.

Death of Dr. Baldwin.

On Sunday afternoon last, another veteran missionary of the A. B. C. F. M. to these Islands, was called to his reward when Rev. Dr. Dwight Baldwin, aged 87 years, passed peacefully away, at the residence of his son-in-law, S. M. Damon. Dr. Baldwin and wife arrived at these Islands in June, 1831, and were located most of the time at Lahaina, Maui. He leaves three daughters, Mrs. W. D. Alexander, Mrs. S. M. Damon and Mrs. W. O. Atwater, and three sons, D. D. H. P. and Chas. Baldwin. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon from Kawaiahae Church, which was largely attended by the many friends, both foreigners and natives, to pay their last tribute of respect to a well rounded useful life.

Police Court Items.

MONDAY, January 4th. Eight drunks paid their respects, and $6 each to Justice Bickerton.

Pat Hughes, charged with assault and battery; fined $5 and $3 costs.

Five native hack drivers were charged with furious and heedless driving; three were fined $5 and $1.75 costs each, one was fined $5 and $2.50 costs, and the other forfeited $10 bail.

Jose Demingo, charged with burglary, was remanded until the 8th instant.

Pahu (w), charged with deserting her husband, was sentenced to imprisonment at hard labor for thirty days, and pay costs.

Pipilani, charged with selling liquor without a license; remanded for judgment until to day.

Kohala Items.

A Kohala correspondent reports a murder case during Christmas week on the Hahi Plantation, where a Chinaman was fatally stabbed, it is alleged, by a foreigner. The funeral was very largely attended by the Chinese of the district.

Mrs. John Hinds' condition is reported to give her relatives and numerous friends serious concern. Dr. Kimball hastened from Kawaiahae to a consultation by the Kinaiu, and it is hoped that a change for the better will result therefrom.

The friends of reform in Kohala are encouraged at the prospect of success of their Independent candidate, Dr. J. Wright.

Hilo Notes.

The schooner Emma Claudina, Captain W. Matson, left Hilo for San Francisco, January 2d, with a load of sugar from Wainaku.

The brig Harard sailed from Hilo on December 31st for San Francisco, with a load of sugar from Waiakea Mill, and from Laupahoehoe.

The steamer Ivy Holmes was taken in hand by the Lehua, and was drawn off the sand into her native element, and is on duty again.

On Christmas Day, Mr. C. C. Kennedy, manager of Waiakea mill, gave his Portuguese and Japanese laborers five bullocks, which were equally divided amongst them. This is done every year. The effect is good. It has a double effect, and so has the mill, which gives the greatest satisfaction.

The Sheriff of Hawaii can decline to let the foreign school at Hilo have the Court-house Hall for an entertainment, which would not injure it at all, but lets it to the Royal party for a ball. Oh! consistency thou art a jewel!

The New Year's Day was a perfect one in Hilo. The King received calls. An immense crown of flowers was placed in the portico of his residence and attracted much attention. The arches were re-trimmed and looked more beautiful than before. Hilo has excelled herself in doing the King honor.

King Kalakaua was landed at Hilo in state. He was brought ashore in a beautiful double canoe, prepared for the occasion. It was thought at one time that it was too rough and it would not be safe to use the canoe, which would have been a disappointment to those who took special pains with it by erecting a nice covering, etc. The canoe came ashore in nice style and seemed happy as it came gambling over the water. The band, the few that remains of it, played well. The streets had been strewn with grass. The many arches were covered with evergreens and appropriate mottoes, which displayed great taste. On the eve of the day the King arrived there was music and the hula, which the King is fond of; on Sunday he was occupied with some friends, and in the evening went to see a Christmas entertainment at the foreign church. On Tuesday evening a reception was given the King at the house of L. Severance, Esq., at which there was a fine entertainment. On Wednesday the King was at his residence, to welcome all who called. On Thursday, being the Queen's birthday, there was a grand luau, probably the finest ever given in Hilo. A large, framed building was erected in the Court-house yard, with wooden roof, so in case of rain no one would get wet. There were two bullocks killed, and many pigs and poultry, all cooked in native style. A bottle of wine or beer was placed beside each person, and some were so inebriated as to get very happy, while some even were made drunk. The luau looked very beautiful. There were seats for about 125 at one time, and they were filled several times. The invitation were sent out by the Governor of Hawaii, and all were invited to come and have a good square meal. In the evening there was an extra hula, which excelled all the others.

DIED.

BALDWIN.—In this city, Sunday, January 3, 1886, Rev. Dwight Baldwin, M. D., aged 87 years, a native of Durham, Conn., and a resident of these Islands since 1831.

The Latest American Invention. THE VICTORY OF ELECTRICITY.

Since Electricity has been applied for lighting purposes, all efforts of inventors have been directed to construct a lamp for general domestic use. The reason why this problem has till now not been solved, is that none of the inventors could rid themselves of the idea of gas lighting, and that all have adhered to the system of producing the Electricity in some central place, or by large machinery, instead of first laying down the principle that a Lamp which should ever become generally useful and popular, must be portable, like an Oil Lamp, and contain the generator of Electricity in itself, i. e., in the foot of the Lamp.

The Norman Electric Light Company has at last succeeded in completely realizing this ideal of Electric Lighting, and there is no doubt that this most important invention will bring about a complete revolution in all branches of lighting.

Our Electric Lamp needs neither Machinery, Conductors, nor any expensive outlay, and is neither complicated nor disagreeable in manipulation; all that is necessary is to refill it every four or five days with acid. The cost of lighting will be as cheap as gas (4 cents per hour), and it has before the latter the immense advantage of neither producing heat, smoke nor carbonic acid, owing to which the air is not impured, and remains at the same degree of temperature. It is further absolutely inodorous, and does not need to be kindled by match, or otherwise, but simply by turning the key, thus avoiding all danger of fire, explosion or suffocation, as in the case of gas, if the key is left open; and it must be conceded that this advantage alone is invaluable. It is further preferable to any known kind of lighting for the following reasons:

(1.) Its manipulation is so simple that any child can keep it in order. (2.) That the Lamp is portable, and can be removed like any Oil Lamp, from one place to another. (3.) That it neither requires the disagreeable fixing of the wick, or the cleaning of the cylinder, as in the case of Oil Lamps. (4.) That the light produced is a soft and most steady one; that it never flickers, and the flame, though being equal in power of lighting to gas, can be regulated to any degree.

(5.) That every danger of fire is absolutely excluded, as the light will extinguish immediately, if by any accident the glass surrounding the burner should be broken. (6.) That it will burn, even in the strongest wind, completely unaffected, thus being invaluable for illuminations, lighting of gardens, corridors, etc.

This Lamp is constructed for the present in three different sizes: A, small size. Height of complete Lamp, 14 inches; weight, about 5 pounds; for lighting rooms, cellars, storage houses, powder magazines, (or similar places, where explosives are kept), coaches, illuminations, garden, mines, or any other industrial purpose. Price, $1 — per lamp, delivered free to any part of the world. B, medium size. Serves all domestic purposes for lighting rooms, houses, etc. This Lamp is elegantly decorated, and has removable white Ground Glass Globe. Price, per Lamp (inclusive of Bronze Foot and Globe, richly and elegantly constructed) $2 —, delivered free to any part of the world. C, grand size for Parlor, Hall, Saloon, Public Building, etc. The Lamp gives a most brilliant and steady light, has large, removable white Globe, decorated most tastefully, and the workmanship is both first-class and elegant. Price $4 to —. Foot of Lamp is either Bronze, Japanese, Faience or Silver Oxide.

Any special size or design made to order. Estimates furnished. All Lamps are ready for immediate use, and will be sent, securely packed in strong wooden box, with printed directions for use, a quantity of chemicals sufficient for several months' lighting, and one extra burner for size A, and two for sizes B and C. The necessary chemicals can be purchased in any drug store, in even the smallest village.

Every Lamp is accompanied by a written guarantee for one year, and will be exchanged or money refunded, if the same should not give complete satisfaction.

On all orders for six Lamps and above, a discount of six per cent. will be allowed. No orders from abroad filled, unless accompanied by a remittance to cover the amount, or first class reference on a New York or Philadelphia house.

The best method of sending money is by draft on New York, which can be procured at any banker, and everywhere, or enclose the amount in bank notes, gold coin, or postage stamps of any country of the world.

All orders, the smallest as well as the most important, will receive the same particular attention, and will be forwarded without delay. Our Electric Lamps are protected by law, and all imitations and infringements will be prosecuted.
